"A Record of the Descendants of Allen Breed who Came to America from England in 1630"
J. Howard Breed - 1892

"The Mass. Company"

19th Mar, 1628, John Humphrey (bro-in law of Earl of Lincoln), John Endicott & 4 others, gentlemen of Dorchester, obtained a grant of land from Mass. Bay to the Pacific Ocean bet. 2 parallel lines from Laconia to Plymouth patent & formed this company & on the 4th of Mar, 1629 John Winthrop, Sir Richard Saltonstall and others secured a grant to confirm the grant & then formed a corporation known as "The Governor and Company of Mass — Bay in New England." Preparations were made to extend the settlement which they named "The London Plantation in Mass — Bay."

Every 50 pounds ($240) contributed to the company's stock by any member entitled him to 200 acres of land.

Every stockholder who emigrated at his own expense was to receive 50 acres for each member of his family. The stock afterward diminished in value, and as a compensation, each stockholder was to receive 200 acres additional for each 50 pounds originally subscribed.

Of this company John Winthrop was elected Governor. He was b. in Groton, County of Suffolk, Eng. Jan. 11, 1588. He d. in Boston, Mass, 26 March 1649. He was bred to the law. He sailed with his company from Yarmouth, Eng. 7 April 1630.

Earlier Emigrations

The Puritans from Leyden sailed from Southampton in the Mayflower + Speedwell on 5 Aug. 1620 but were forced by storms to ret. to Plymouth. The Mayflower again sailed for America on 6 Sept. 1620 & entered Cape Cod Harbor on Nov. 11. Colony consisted of 101 persons. The passengers of the Speedwell came with others in the Fortune which arr. 10 Nov. 1621.

The 3rd colony arrived in the "Annie and Little James" in August 1623

The 4th colony arrived in June 1629, in 6 ships and with them came 35 members of the Leyden Congregation landing at Naumkeag (Salem)-

The 5th party arrived about June 1, 1630 from West of England, under Ludlow, bro-in-law of Endicott; landed at Nantasket + settled Matapan, which they called Dorchester after their native City.

On June 12, 1630, the Arbella + 15 other vessels, arr. at Salem with 8 or 900 souls; being the Mass— Company under John Winthrop.

Winthrop went to Boston
Saltonstall to Watertown
Pynchon to Roxbury
Craddock's servants to Mystic (called Medford)
Allen Bread, and some 50 others, stopped at Saugus, and founded Lynn.

In 1629? the inhabitants of Lynn consisted of the families of these 5 men — Edmund + Francis Ingalls,
John + William Wood
and William Dixey.

Lynn was known as "Saugust" when it was inc. in 1630 by being rep. in the Gen. Court.

Previous to 1632 the people of Lynn had no Minister of their own. Some attended Ch. at Salem + others had meetings in their houses. The Rev. Stephen Bachiler arr. in Boston June 5th of that year + went at once to Lynn, the first service being conducted by him on the the 8th of June. In 1635 he was dismissed + Hugh Peters was employed to preach but he would not become their pastor. He went back to Eng. in 1641 + was? executed on the charge of treason 16 Oct. 1660.

In 1635? Rev. Samuel Whiting came to Lynn from his home in Lynn, Eng. + in compliment to him the name "Saugust" was dropped and the name "Lynn" adopted.

Lynn in England was called "Lynn Regis" because it was patronized by King John who in 1215 rec. great service from the town in his war w/ France. ¶ Mr. Whiting was installed pastor of the Ch. at Lynn 8 Nov. 1635 wh. consisted of 6 members beside the pastor. They signed a covenant and adopted the name, "The First Church of Christ in Lynn."

Samuel Whiting was b. at Boston, Lincolnshire, England 20 Nov. 1597. His fa. John was Mayor of the city in 1600 and his bro. John secured the same office in 1625. He d. 11 Dec. 1679

Mr. Whiting sailed from Eng. April 1636? & arr. at Boston, Mass. on May 26. He preached at Lynn 43 yrs.

m. 2 – Elzb. St. John, of Bedfordshire, Eng.
sister of Oliver St. John, Chief Justice of Eng.
in the time of Oliver Cromwell.
She was 6th cousin to King Henry VIII.

Through the Beauchamps she was desc. from the Earls of Warren & Surrey, from the Earl of Warwick, from Wm. the Conqueror and from King Henry I of France. She was desc. from William the Norman in 2 distinct lines and in her were united the lineage of 10 of the sovereigns of Europe.

It seems most probable that Allen Breed was a Puritan when he landed. He was identified with First Congr. Ch. in Lynn and as late as 1692 we find that his son Allen^2 was assigned a seat in the pulpit by vote of the Town Meeting. We find his grandson signing the list of "those called Quakers" in 1692. The greater part of that branch of the family, which remained in Lynn, are ~~called~~ members of the Society of Friends.

Allen's grandson, John #48, went to Stonington and the greater part of his desc. have been Baptists. Some of the Stonington branch, in Norwich, Conn., are Congreg. & those who desc. from his gr. grandson George #162 are Presbyterians.

The Bread family in the U.S. is one family, all being the desc. of Allen^1 and his 1st wife, who came to this country in 1630, bringing w/them 2 boys & having 2 boys b. to them after their settlement in Lynn.

p. 4. Allen lived in Lynn nr. the pt. where Summer St. crosses the Turnpike. That part of town where he lived is still known as "Breed's End." In 1638 when town lands were divided - 1 allotment was made of 800 acres, 3 of 500, 1 of 350, 1 of 210 and 9 of 200 acres each. Allen rec'd. 200 acres. It may be assumed Allen was a stockholder & emigrated at his own expense as he rec'd. 50 acres for each member of his family that came over.

In 1640 about forty families left Lynn to settle a new plantation & Allen was one of these. They invited Mr. Abraham Pierson, who had res. at Boston and at Lynn, to be their pastor & he went with them.

The Articles of Agreement, under which they embarked, were signed by John Cooper, Edward Howell,

Edmund Needham, Josiah Stanbury,

Henry Walton, Allen Breed,

⑪ William Harcher, Thomas Newhall,

John Farrington, Thomas Sayre,

Daniel Howe, Job Sayre, George Webb

Thomas Halsey, Philip Kertland, Thomas Paddington, Thomas Terry

They sailed in the vessel of Capt. Daniel Howe to Scott's Bay in western part of Long Island where they purchased land of Mr. James Forrett, agent of Lord Sterling and agreed with the Indians for their right.

Allen Breed returned to Lynn prob. after Mr. Pierson left the settlement in 1647 & went to Branford, Ct. (later he became pastor of First Presby. ch. of Newark, New Jersey).

"Hist. of Lynn, Mass." by Lewis & Newhall - says Mr. Breed closed his strangely eventful life, in Lynn Almshouse on the 23d of December 1839, at the age of seventy-four years. He had been a pauper there for many years, and his life which had opened with unusual promise, closed in misery and degradation. Lynn is greatly indebted to him as one of the most efficient laborers in the establishment of that business which has so enriched her, and on which her prosperity continues to rest --"

Appointed by Archbishop Sandys, 1 Jan. 1575/6, receiver of Scrooby & bailiff of the Manor of Scrooby (life tenure) and in 1588 was appointed postmaster by Queen Elizabeth. On his death his son William^1 Brewster was appointed to both the bailiff & postmaster positions, & served in these capacities until his departure for Holland.

b. abt. 1569, Eng.; d. 17 Apr. 1627, Plymouth, Mass.

He matriculated at Peterhouse (oldest of the 14 colleges at that time grouped into Univ. of Cambridge), on 3 Dec. 1580, but appar. did not stay long enough to take his degree. It is believed this is where he acquired his earliest Separatist ideas. Next found as a "discreete and faithfull" ass't. to Wm. Davison, Sec. of State to Queen Elizabeth, & accompanied that gentleman on his embassy to Netherlands in August 1585 & served him at court after his return until his downfall in 1587. Ret'd. to Scrooby where he lived; appointed adm. of fa's. est. in 1590; and appointed to both the bailiff & postmaster positions which his fa. had held. He was "Post" on grt No. Rd. from London to Scotland & managed the post-house until 1607. In 1609, at Leyden, Holland, he was elder and teacher of the new church, also a printer of Puritan books, for sale in England. (Morton Dexter, in "England and Holland of the Pilgrims", states that William Brewster was a ribbon maker while at Leyden. Presumably there was a local market for ribbons.) On June 25, 1609, Elder Brewster signed an affidavit giving his age as forty-two, his wife's age as forty, and their son Jonathan's age as sixteen. He embarked on the Mayflower at London with his wife, his sons Love and Wrestling, and two boys "bound out" to him. Acc. to the inv. of his prop. ("Mayflower Descendant" 3:15-27) he wore a violet-colored coat, black silk stockings, and a ruff, etc. His library shows his scholarship in history, philosophy and religious writings. It contained more than 400 volumes. A list of his books printed at Leyden is shown in "The Mayflower Descendant" 23:97-105.

"Bosworth Genealogy - Part 2" -1928- Mrs. Mary Bosworth Clarke

John^1 Brown of Mass. Bay Colony became acquainted w/the Pilgrims at Leyden. He Emigrated from his home in the south & west of England, to Boston and Plymouth abt 1630. Elected a freeman in 1634, and in 1636 an assistant, which office he held for 17 yrs. by annual election. His son James^2 was admitted freeman in 1636. Mr. Brown was a man of large intelligence, great energy and deep piety. He was a grand pioneer in the settlement of the towns west of Plymouth. He was 1 of the purchasers of land called Cohannat, or Taunton, in 1637; he w/ Capt. Miles Standish erected bounds around the purchase in 1640, where he had rem. w/ his family before 1643, for among the 54 males subject to Military duty in that year, his name was first, followed by his 2 sons, John, Jr. & James.

During the same yr. he was one of the company to purchase Rehoboth, Mass. His interest was the largest of any, amounting to £600. By 9 June 1645, he & his son James^2 had rem. from Taunton to Rehoboth, his son John^2 followed in 1647 & his son-in-law Willett later.

In Dec. 1645, Mr. Brown, Sen., became sole proprietor of the section in Sowams known by the Indians as Wannamoisett and Wannamoisett neck (now Bullock's Point and Riverside), which originally included a large portion of what is now Barrington, and the south part of Seekonk and East Providence. His holdings extended to Narragansett Bay, or Sowams Bay, as called by the Indians. Massasoit's home was in Sowams, where he died in 1661.

Mr. John Brown represented Plymouth Colony for 12 yrs. associated w/ such men as John Winthrop, Gov. Haynes, Mr. Eaton, Mr. Bradstreet & Gov. Winslow.

John^1 Brown b. Eng.; d. 10 Apr. 1662 ? Mattapoisett Wannamoisett

His bur. place is prob. in what is now known as "Viall Burial Ground", formerly known as the "Brown Burial Ground," on the "Little Neck" in Wannamoisett which he purchased from the Indians, also within the bounds of Ancient Swansea.

m. 6 July 1636 – Capt. Thomas Willett, b. about 1610, whose name was 2nd on the list of purchasers of Sowams (Swansey) & to Plymouth in 1629 a youth of 19. Such was his ability that the Colony sent him, in 1630, to superintend their trading houses in Maine where he rem. 6 yrs. returning to Plymouth in 1636 to marry Mary. In 1647 he was elected to succeed Myles Standish as Captain at Plymouth. He was an Assistant by annual election from 1651-1665.

In 1664 he was called to aid Col. Nichols in the surrender of N.Y. to the English by the Dutch, as Capt. Willett was not only an able diplomat, but a thorough master of the Dutch language & customs. So popular was he w/ both the English & Dutch of Manhattan that he was chosen first Mayor of New York in 1665 & reelected in 1666. He had rem. to Wannamoisett about 1662 where he and his family resided until his death 1674 in residence of his fa-in-law John Brown

Dear Mrs. Bready,

I joined the Cape Cod Genealogy Society at its last meeting before the summer break, and got your name out of the vertical file at Brooks Library.

For the past several months, I have been working on a chart of my mother's side of the family. We have several Burgesses whom I have been unable to trace back further. Perhaps you could help.

Judah Burgess born circa 1780, I would think, married Eunice(?) and was the father of Rosanna Burgess who was b. in Dennis in circa 1799 and died there Oct. 29, 1876. Rosanna married Anthony Baker of Dennis and they were the parents of Abigail Baker, my Great-Great-Grandmother, who married Silvanus Cahoon of Harwich.

I also am seeking information on the Parents of Thankful Burgess who, According to the genealogy of Thomas Clark, married ~~David~~ DANIEL Cole. Thankful would have been born circa 1710.

Thankful for your time and Consideration.

Sincerely
Nancy Aylott

Dear Mrs. Bready

Thanks so much for the leads on Baker and Burgess lines. I really apologize for not writing earlier to thank you, especially since you were so incredibly prompt in responding to my inquiry. Some other demands on my time, combined, I'm afraid, with a little frustration in my genealogy work, lead me to shelf the endeavor for awhile. But now I'm back at it, and will pursue your suggestions. Also I ordered, but have not yet received, a copy of the Burgess genealogy that includes the New England Branch

BURROWS - BYRAM

I don't know if this has any Cape Cod Burgesses in it I decided to take a chance. If you think you'd like to see it, I can bring it to one of the meetings of the CCGS. Let me know.

Thanks again for your help.

Sincerely

Nancy

Dear Mrs. Bready:

I have searched our records at your request, and am enclosing a copy of the birth record for one Sarah B. Blackmer. This record is the only one we had. I could find no marriage of her to a Burgess. Also note the date of her birth. You thought it might be around 1830. Also no date or month.

Before the year 1892 it was not required that permanent records be kept in Maine, therefore our records before that time are incomplete.

I hope this record will be of interest to you.

If at any future time I can be of interest to you, please feel free to write.

Will of Thomas^1 Burgess

I, Thomas Burgess, Senr., of Sandwich, being through God's goodness full of years, and waiting for my change, and yet having my understanding remaining with me, --- blessed be God, --- and also through God's great goodness being possessed of a competent outward estate, do now on serious consideration make this my last Will and Testament, touching the disposal of my estate after my dear wife and myself be decently buried, and all necessary charges defrayed, and all debts paid, the remaining part I give as followeth:

Item. I give unto my eldest son, Thomas Burgess, of Rhode Island, five pounds out of my movable estate, to be paid by my executors after our decease.

Item. I give unto my son, Jacob Burgess, upon good consideration, all my house-lot, dwelling-house, barn and out-houses, all my upland on both sides of the cartway, all that belongs to my homestead dwelling. I also give him all my meadow that I have lying below Michael Blackwell's dwelling-house on both sides of Scusset River, for him my said son Jacob Burgess to enjoy, use and possess during his natural life; and after his decease I give the said dwelling-house, barn and all the forementioned lands, both upland and meadow, to his son Thomas Burgess, my grandson to him and his heirs forever. But if my said grandson die without heirs, then my will is that the said house and lands above-mentioned shall return to the next heir of my son, Jacob Burgess. I give also to my said son, Jacob Burgess, all my land lying near and adjacent to Thomas Tupper's lands below the cartway, having Mr. Freeman's land on the western side. These I give to him upon this condition, that he, my said son Jacob Burgess, pay or cause to be paid unto my grandson Thomas Burgess, son of my son John Burgess, ten pounds in good pay, to be made to him my grandson, at twenty-three years of age.

Item. I give unto my son, Joseph Burgess, the first and second lots that adjoin his other lands near his house, if my said son accept of them so as to pay unto my son, John Burgess, five pounds; but if my son Joseph refuse said lands upon such terms, as to pay said five pounds as aforesaid, then my will is that said land return to my son, Ezra Perry[1], and that he perform the condition, --- I mean by two lots, those lots that were once . . . . .[2]; then I give them: I give to my said son, Ezra Perry, all my other lands that lie above the said two lots, for him to enjoy forever, the which lands I bought of Mr. Edward Freeman, Jr.

Item. I give to my dear wife all my movable estate, to be at her own disposing at her decease. I mean chattels of all sorts that I may have.

And I do appoint and ordain my son, Ezra Perry, and my son, Jacob Burgess, to be my Executors to see this my last Will performed as I witness under my hand and seal, this fourth day of April, 1684.

Thomas Burgess.

Witness---
Thomas Tupper,
Martha Tupper---

Who made oath in Court before the Governor and Mr. John Thatcher, Assistant, that they saw Thomas Burgess sign, seal and declare this to be his last Will and Testament, and that to the best of their judgment he was of a disposing mind when he so did.

"A Town that Went to Sea" (Aubigne Lermond Packer - 1950)

Wm. Burgess, of the firm of Burgess, O'Brien & Co. which operated lime kilns & ran a store where one could buy anything from Saleratus, or a paper of pins, to a ton of coal or winter underwear - had a son Edward O'Brien Burgess.

There were 3 men in Thomaston by name of Edward O'Brien. Hon. Edward O'Brien, his son Edward Ellis O'Brien, and nephew Edward K. O'Brien (always called "E.K."). then there was Edward O'Brien Burgess, not an O'Brien at all, but a namesake and an incarnation of all that was brightest & best in the O'Brien tradition.

Ø w/w. Dorothy & 3 ch., arr. in Salem, Mass. in 1630; for a time in Lynn, Mass.; assigned a section of land in Duxbury 3 July 1637, but the following year made his perm. home in Sandwich, Plymouth Colony, which remained in the Burgess name for over 200 years. New g.s.'s were erected in 1917, with fragments of the old stones now serving as footstones. He was elected in 1642 to rep. Sandwich in the provincial legislature where he served for 11 years, one of the longest periods of rep. in the Colony. He had emigrated from England as a Puritan and in America became a memb. of the Congregational Church. In his late life, he was known among his contemporaries as "Goodman Burgess", having been one of the 11 original male members of the 1st church est. in Sandwich. At his death, he left, for those times, a considerable property, which he disposed of by will to his wife and children. Freeman 2 June 1640 (Ref. #4).

Eligibility of desc. of Thomas Burgess to become members of the Soc. of Colonial Wars has been est. and accepted by the Society on the basis that he was elected as Dep. for Sandwich to the Plymouth Colony General Court June 1642, Aug. 1644, June 1648, July 1654, Aug. 165 , June 1660, June 1662 and June 1668, and that he served in the expedition against the Narragansetts in Aug. 1645. Henry Burt died intestate, but a nuncupative will was admitted to probate, and this interesting instrument is of record, illustrating the high character of the jurisprudence of the time and place, as also of the principles of justice and equity that informed the community:

"Henry Burt of Springfield.
 Who departed this life April 30, 1662, not having any will made by his own hand for ye disposing of his estate, yet for what he did by words express his mind thereon before Ensign Thomas Cooper and Jonathan Burt who by a writing made by their hands presented the same into this court, a copy whereof hereafter follows, the widow Burt consenting thereunto. The court allowed the same to stand as the last will and testament of said Henry Burt.
 We, Thomas Cooper and Jonathan Burt do testify that after Henry Burt was deceased and disposed of part of his estate to his son Nathaniel, said Henry put such conclusions as these, viz: That what estate he had then left should be at his wife's disposal, as witness our hands this 29th day of September, 1662.

It is difficult to say how accurate the above valuation was or what the equivalent amounts to-day would be. It would be of interest to know what the "several other small things" and the "other particular things" were as illustrative of the household wares of that day. The relative appraisements present some peculiar features; thus the house and land in town was worth only nine times as much as the "brass pan and kettles". So, too, the three bottles at five shillings and three young cattle at five pounds would indicate each of these cattle as worth twenty bottles. Many other such comparisons will be suggested by an examination of this inventory.

An account of the apparent death of Eulalia the wife of Henry Burt and of her happy resuscitation before burial has been given in one of the addresses at the family gathering on October 3, 1890. This incident occurred in England. Mrs. Burt survived her husband over twenty-eight years, the date of her death being August 29, 1690. Her will, made six years before her decease, is of record and as follows :

This unique instrument gives much information as to the household effects and the female wearing apparel of those primitive days. The testator divides her "ſmal estate" as equitably as possible among her natural heirs. That she made her mark in executing her will is no evidence that she had not been able to write in her younger days. In many instances not only the women but many of the men who signed legal papers, still on record in Springfield, made their marks. It is probable that only a very few women could write in those days in any of the New England settlements. Some who could not were able to read. In England, when the first colonization of America took place, writing was not held as necessary by those whose occupations did not require it, and all who came to America in its early settlement brought with them the habits and attainments common in their day in England. What is now regarded as illiteracy is evidence of want of capacity or of

* In the records kept by John Pynchon and others this name is written "Ulaliah." Neither he nor the others were authority in orthography. Names were written by the early recorders in accordance with what they conceived to be the sound. They, however, did not always follow this rule, and the same name in their records was frequently written in different ways. At that time the English language had not reached uniformity, even in England, and the records here should not in all cases be accepted as absolutely correct in relation to the spelling of proper names.

Prob. 1 of the younger sons of Henry, the only man named Burt in the town, was this goat-herd. David^{2} Burt gave up a land grant in Springfield (dated 10 Jan. 1652) in order to move to Nonotuck (Northampton), said land was given to his father at a Town meeting 8 Feb. 1654. It seems therefore certain that David moved very early in 1654, and was one of the 1st settlers in Northampton, Mass. He was a farmer and land surveyor and ton was chosen to the office of town measurer of lands in 1657. While he was not a leader in the town's affairs, having had less to do with the public policy in the government of the settlement than had his older brother, Jonathan. in Springfield, or the younger brother, Nathaniel, in Longmeadow, he served faithfully in that which came to him, and from the little that now can be gathered from his life, he was respected and beloved, not only by his more immediate relatives, but by his neighbors and townsmen.

Benjamin^{3} Burt was a farmer and blacksmith. Benjamin and wife, Sarah, were taken captives by the French and Indians at the destruction of Deerfield, Mass. on 29 Feb. 1704, and marched to Canada, arriving at Chamble on 25th of March - their 1st ch.,Christopher, was born there on 14th of Apr. Ten of Benjamin's relatives,and eight of Sarah's, were victims of the Indians during the period 27 Oct. 1675 - May 1709. Ensign John Sheldon, of Deerfield, made 4 expeditions to Canada to redeem his fellow-townsmen and finally on 30 May 1706 left Quebec with over 40, including the Burts. They went via the St.Lawrence and by sea to Boston, arr. 2nd of August. A second son was born to the Burts during the voyage and appropriately named "Seaborn."

John^{3} Burt - "About the middle of May 1709, Capt. Benjamin Wright, the famous Indian fighter of Northfield, started up the Connecticut River at the head of a war party - he had with him ten companions, one of whom was John Burt. They had a pocket-compass as a guide through the wilderness and advanced to within 40 miles of the French military station at Chamble, Canada. On their return trip they met and attacked a party of Indians on the Onion River, in which skirmish John was killed."

Jonathan^{5} lived in a block fort most of the time until 7 yrs old. His fa., Aaron^{4} Burt, moved to Westmoreland, N.H., where he kept a tavern. Capt. Wm.^{4} De and family, from Plainfield, Conn., in the month of Dec. 1766, stopped for entertainment over night. Their only dau., Thankful, was one of them and Jonathan gallantly assisted her from the saddle (as they were all on horseback) and went into the kitchen and told his sister that "his wife had come This proved true, as they were m. in Windsor, Vt., August 31, 1767, bein the first couple m. in that place. Although raised in all the luxuries of those days, she proved a most excellent helpmeet in leading a pioneer's life. On the occasion of her family's visit at Jonathan's father's tavern, the prospective wife was unable to proceed on her journey and stayed there a week. When her bro. returned for her with the sad news that her mother had died the morning after their arrival at their new home at Windsor, Vt. Dec. 22, 1766, this being the first death in that town.

Jonathan bought a farm at W. Windsor & built the 1st framed house there & lived there until his death. He was a very industrious man and was just in all his dealings, giving in all his accounts the minutest details of every dollar spent or received. Zealous in his religious beliefs, without bigotr entertaining the Methodist ministers at his hospitable home, where Lorenzo Dow often found a warm welcome, when by others it was considered heresy to do so. His dau. Sarah, when only 16 yrs. of age, made a journey from Windso Vt. to Westmoreland, N.H., finding her way by marked trees, to visit relatives in the latter place. His son, David, when only 9 yrs. of age, would go to Charlestown, N.H., 25 miles from home, to get their grain ground. He would put two bags on one horse and lead another with a similar load, findi his way by the aid of marked trees, the trip occupying 2 days. Such a journey, undertaken by a lad so young, is a striking illustration of the great courage which these pioneers and their children possessed.

"Windsor, Vt., April 23, 1810

I, Jonathan Burt, am this day sixty-seven years, seven months and nine days old, I having an impression on my mind since the reformation began in Windsor, to rite some brief account of my Life and experience. I was Born in the town of Northfield, Massachusetts, in the year 1742, September 3, old stile. My father's name was Aaron Burt, son of Joseph Burt, one of the first settlers in Northfield, and mother's name was Miriam Elmor, Daughter of Hezekiah Elmor, one of the first settlers in Northfield, and as God has given me and retained a strong memory, I can well remember events that took place whin I was But very young. The first I will menshon is my uncle Asahel Burt, and Nathaniel Dickerson, who was killed By the indians, in 1747, April 15, old style. I then Being four years, seven months and twelve days old, well remember the alarm. My mother and aunt with their children ran up to the fort towards the enemy. A solger came running with all his mite and saith, 'don't go this way, for God's-sake.' However, when they Broat in my Uncle and Dickerson, I ran out of doors to see them, and did see them Lying on my uncles mare, which was not hurt. They were killed Like two ded sheep, with their heads hanging down on one side, and feet on the other, of the mare, with thear scalps taken of their heads. It was almost dark then; they carried them into Mr. Averel's room, within the pickets. Laid them on the floor, side by side, and the Blood soon ran from each of their Bodyes, almost acrost the floor. The next thing to menshon -- in 1748; in June, Aaron Belding at sunrise who was returning from working, thear Lay'd indians Behind the Board fence, one and a half rods from the path. Seven indians, all fired at once, made a rideal of his Body; he ran four rods fell down dead, they upon him in a minute, within 30 or 40 rods of his Brother's house, where he Liv'ed. His Brother and others see the indians, taking of his scalp fired at the indians, but they soon went off into the woods. These three men have I seen with their garments soaked in Blood."

Enos^7 Burt, born at Windsor, Vt., lived there until manhood. In 1825 he m. Lucy Ann Osgood. One child was born to them while they lived in Vermont. In 1827, they, in company with others, started on a twelve-days' journey in midwinter, with ox teams and one horse, for the unbroken wilds of New York, where, in Lawrence, St. Lawrence County, he selected himself a farm of one hundred acres, built a log house and cleared the land, working on the farm through the day and in his shoe and harness shop at night. Later on he added another hundred acres to his farm, where they lived and died (she in 1885, and he in 1888).

He was strongly attached to his children who were settled near him. Living and dead, his descendants number 8 children, 19 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren, and they all knew that a warm welcome awaited them at "grandpa's house."

YARMOUTHPORT — Cynthia L. Osgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Osgood Jr. of Main Street, Sandwich and Stephen M. Burt of Harwichport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Burt of Gas City, Indiana, were married June 6 at Anthony's Cummaquid Inn.

The 2 p.m. ceremony was performed by Chaplain David L. Pearcy and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

I wonder who Charles F. Burt is descended from and the Geo. W. Osgood, Sr. also.
He would be a generation
back of Charles F. Burt,
Which Osgood line is his, [illegible]
Christopher, John or William,

I didn't get this dark enough
the next try - too dark.
Dick got a small, dark, copies for our anniversary. It keeps me guessing how to get it just the right darkness.
